Live Auction Begins Under the Big Tent

Grab some lunch and enjoy an afternoon under the big tent at CountryFest's live quilt auction! We have 50 handmade quilts of all sizes (baby to king) donated to the auction by our St. Patrick's Quilters and Friends group. Enjoy our wonderful auctioneer as he auctions off the quilts, or join in the competitive bidding! As all materials, time, and talent are generously donated, 100% of the proceeds goes directly to St. Patrick's.

Get a preview of the quilts before CountryFest online at:
st-patricks.org/events/countryfest/live-quilt-auction/or in person in the social hall before and during CountryFest.

How to Pay:

1. When you win a quilt, one of our volunteer spotters will come to you. Please fill out your name and phone number on the receipt.
2. You will receive 2 receipt copies (pink and yellow) with the quilt picture and the price you agreed to pay.
3. Bring both receipt copies with you to the Payment table (located to the right of the Auction platform) where they will accept your payment and keep the yellow copy and stamp your pink copy paid.
4. Bring your stamped pink copy to the Quilt table (located to the right of the Auction platform) to claim your quilt. Have fun!

Thank you for making this auction a success. We hope to see all of you next year!

The St. Patrick's Quilters

St. Pats is very proud of our quilters. This dedicated group of about 20 enthusiastic and creative parish women sew the beautiful quilts that you see at CountryFest every year. Working individually or supporting each other, these ladies typically make at least 50 quilts each year. Their skill levels run from first timers to highly skilled artisans, and everything in between. Meetings are held at the Andover home of chairperson Ellen Untz on the first and third Tuesday morning of each month, and newcomers are always welcome.

All the CountryFest quilt auction proceeds go to support the parish, but equally motivating is a love of the art of quilting and the joy and beauty it brings to others. Quilts mean warmth and comfort, color and design, creativity and self-expression. In a word, ART.

The St. Pats Quilters invite new members, regardless of skill level- even non-sewers can help as cutters and pressers. They also appreciate donations of appropriate fabrics, especially pieces that are big enough to become quilt backs. So, please bid generously, and know that the quilt you get here is a genuine, handmade, one-of-a-kind original.
